The mission of the Black Education Association (BEA) at Virginia Commonwealth University is to create a community of Black scholars committed to using our collective resources and knowledge to:

- Collaborate with the university to realize its mission and strategic plan in regard to diversity, inclusive excellence and equity;
- Encourage the equitable utilization of Black faculty throughout the university community;
- Promote the professional development of Black faculty;
- Recognize and celebrate the efforts of those who contribute to the advancement of Black faculty in teaching, research, and service at VCU; and
- Prioritize issues of diversity and equity within policy making at VCU.

The Black Education Association
For more information:
bea@vcu.edu
www.vcu.edu/bea
Facebook.com/beavcu

The Black Education Association
Founded in 1970, the Black Education Association provides a support system for black faculty, as well as a conduit for addressing issues related to diversity at VCU.

2014-2015 BEA OFFICERS
President, Faye Belgrave
Vice President, Susan Gooden
Treasurer, Michael Newsome
Secretary, Nakeina Douglas-Glenn
President Elect, Blue Wooldridge
Immediate Past President, Tawnya Pettiford-Wates